BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operation of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the same principles, we have been enabled to make our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy medical bills. And, by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up to such a point as to require no medical treatment. It is this simple, but often neglected, means of securing good health, which is the basis of all our efforts. Hundreds of public markets are fondling around us ready to attack wherever we stand. What point, what place may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a generous, sound diet?"—(Cecil Davies, Esq., London.)

THE BIG PENSION LIST.

SIXTEEN THOUSAND CERTIFICATES ISSUED DURING THE MONTH OF MARCH.

Fully $5,000 for Original Pensioners—Congressman Mansur Going Home on a Visit—Gen. Haydon Kneels Out a Piece of Business—A Statue for France—The Union Pacific's Government Indebtedness—Washington News.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3.—Congressman Charles Mansur will leave the capital this evening for home. He will be followed the next day by Congressman Hatch. The latter will make a short stay.

Capt. Thomas P. Leathers is at the Ebbitt and, though 74 years old, looks the picture of health. He says: "For one half a century I have been in active service on the Father of Waters and I have never seen it so far out of its banks as it is now. Think of an expanse of water ninety miles in width, and that will give you an idea of the situation at Helena, Ark. During my career as a river pilot I have built a series of steamboats, each of which was called Natchez, and I expect to command a vessel of that name as long as I live."

Commissioner Baum says the last month was the busiest ever experienced in the history of his office. Sixteen thousand pension certificates were issued, and of these 8,000 cases were for original pensioners.

Charles Mansur made quite a speech in the House yesterday against the disfranchising clauses of the Idaho Constitution directed against the Mormons of that territory. The attractions of the race track proved a greater drawing card than the legislative debate, and Mansur, Debo, Chapman and the rest spoke to a large array of empty seats. Dorsey of Nebraska is in charge of the bill. Petitions have been presented in the Senate by Mr. Vest against placing compound land under the supervision of the Internal Revenue Department, from the employees of the freight departments of the Missouri Pacific at St. Louis. The bill for constructing a bridge across the Hudson between New York and New Jersey, which passed the House yesterday, is the one in which Mr. Anderson of St. Louis is interested. An engineer, the corporation which in all likelihood, will be chartered at this session. Mr. Anderson has done some enrollment and effective work in this matter.

Union Pacific Indebtedness.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3.—The House Committee on Pacific Railroads to-day heard further statements by Morefield Storey, the attorney for the Union Pacific, which were supplemented to President Adams' statement and included some of the public had promised to file with the committee. Mr. Storey submitted a copy of the proposed bill of the Pacific railroad companies containing amendments suggested by President Adams to meet the case of the Union Pacific Co. The changes of consequence proposed are the abolition of the government guarantee of the bonds to be issued, a provision for the cancellation of the mortgage upon full payment of the bonds, and a readjustment of the amounts of the payments somewhat upon the plan proposed in the case of the Central Pacific Co., so as to fund one-half of the interest for five years and thereafter to thereby reduce the amount of the first payments with a corresponding increase of the ultimate payments. The committee will meet to consider the pending bill at the next meeting, and expect to report to the House within a few weeks.

Fractional Currency.
OTOM, D. C., April 3.—The House on Banking and Currency to-day discussed the subject of fractional currency in the mails. The subject was introduced by Mr. Rogers of New York, who proposed a bill to issue fractional currency in the form of postage stamps. The bill was referred to the committee on the subject.

The Russian Apologized.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3.—Col. Charles de Waul, a Russian, who is presenting a claim against the Government for services rendered during the late war, visited the Washington office of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette last night, to demand a correction of a published dispatch. The dispatch stated that Col. de Waul was a spy during the war. Gen. H. V. Boynton, the chief of the bureau of the Commercial-Gazette, declined to retract the charge, and when de Waul called him a coward Gen. Boynton threw him through the doorway of the office and into the street. Col. de Waul returned to the office and apologized for his language, saying that he was firmly convinced that Gen. Boynton was not a coward.

A Statue for France.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3.—A number of well-known ladies, including the wives of Senators Jones, McMillan, Payne and Hearst, Mrs. Whitaker, Mrs. Florence Hayward and Mrs. Frank Hatfield, and others, are presenting to France as a token of friendship the idea of giving such a memorial was originated several years ago by Mrs. Norton Appleton and $5,000 was raised. It is now proposed to increase the amount to $50,000, which it is thought will provide a beautiful memorial.

To Investigate Corruption.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3.—The House Committee on the Judiciary to-day appointed a sub-committee, consisting of Messrs. Thompson, McCormick and Oates, to visit Alabama and neighboring Southern States to take testimony and make a thorough investigation of the alleged improper action of court officers in instituting prosecutions without reason and for the purpose of collecting fees. It is also charged that sentences on public lands have been suspended without warrant of law, and that the officials have been guilty of maladministration and corruption.

Died at the White House.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3.—A dinner was given at the White House last night by the President and Mrs. Harrison in honor of Mr. Whitelaw Reid, United States Minister to France.

FIFTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

The Senate.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3.—On motion of Mr. Edmunds it was ordered that to-morrow being Good Friday, the session of the Senate shall be held Saturday, Mr. Blair, at his own request, was excused from further service on the Committee on Public Lands and Mr. Patterson was appointed in his place.

The House.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3.—On motion of Mr. Edmunds it was ordered that to-morrow being Good Friday, the session of the House shall be held Saturday, Mr. Blair, at his own request, was excused from further service on the Committee on Public Lands and Mr. Patterson was appointed in his place.

Barr's don't mind telling you in confidence that they expect a beautiful day to-morrow in honor of their jacket and millinery exhibit. Don't believe you've been told about the pretty fancy waists, full fronts, belts with silver clasps and other stylish new ideas.

If you have a boy to buy a suit of clothes for, you'd better come right down and see the beautiful new styles in spring suits for boys 4 to 14 years and hear the Barr price that goes with them. The new sashed admiral outfit is a "jim dandy."

We wish that everybody who thinks of buying a Bible, prayer-book or any sort of Easter gift book, bound either plainly or with exquisite daintiness, would come and see the beautiful goods at Barr's. All sorts of religious books and no end to the Easter cards.

ligious books and no end to the Easter cards.

It may be egotistical, but we can't help alluding to our beautiful hats and bonnets. We're prouder 'n usual of our display this year, and that's saying a good deal. You'll say that you don't wonder at it a bit when you see them. Every style that anybody wants is here.

Now, as to pretty new conceits in bangle bracelets, side combs, hair pins, braid fasteners and the thousand and one things the stylish girl fastens to her belt, there's no end. We can only say come and see, and don't forget that the place to buy your Easter gloves is the BUCKET-SHOPS JUBILANT.

THE CHICAGO BOYCOTT LARGELY INCREASES THEIR BUSINESS.

Continued quotations from Chicago regularly received and business booming. The interests of the Merchants' Exchange advanced by the cessation of quotations—The feeling in New York.

His morning the bucket-shops were running at full blast, and the Chicago quotations were being received over the wires as rapidly and regularly as if no boycott had been declared by the Chicago Board of Trade. The market was not posted on the Merchants' Exchange, and the consequence was that those who desired to trade on the basis of the Chicago market were obliged to resort to the bucket-shops.

The promoters of the latter were jubilant and declared that the action of the Chicago Board had resulted in a large increase in their business, as much of the trade that was formerly done on the floor had fallen into their hands.

THEY LAUGHED AT THE IDEA that the Chicago Board of Trade could prevent the quotations from being received, and asserted their ability to give continuous quotations day by day. So far, the effect of the boycott, instead of being detrimental to the bucket-shops, has been to largely increase their business by removing a formidable rival, the Merchants' Exchange, from the field. The speculating public, it is claimed, is receiving the quotations with the same readiness as was the case when they were official, some speculating in the bucket shops, instead of showing a decrease, as was usual, and the boycott has worked in a manner greatly to the advantage of those that it was intended to hurt.

THE EFFECT ON "CHARGE." On the floor of the Merchants' Exchange the remarkable activity that characterized yesterday's dealings continued. The absence of the Chicago quotations, however, as believed by a majority of the pit traders to be advantageous rather than detrimental. Not a few declared the belief that the complete stoppage of the Chicago quotations would be the best thing that could happen to this market. It is believed that the market has been hampered by too great a dependence on the Chicago quotations. The brokers in the pit kept an eye on the Chicago board, when an advance of a sixteenth was made, and a more active trading was seen. The very strong and the influence of the quotations made by the Merchants' Exchange greatly diminished.

THE FEELING WAS GENERAL that the events of yesterday have proved the advantage to St. Louis of cutting entirely loose from Chicago and trading on its own basis. The feeling was general that the influence of the stoppage of the Chicago quotations has been very favorable on that market. The only buyers of the Chicago quotations of the bucket-shops and a large number of the members of the Merchants' Exchange left the Chicago Board of Trade and resorted to the bucket-shops, and again sent out regular official quotations.

THE BOYCOTT IN NEW YORK. NEW YORK, April 3.—Produce Exchange members were jubilant here to-day over the decision of the St. Louis Board of Trade to use New York market quotations instead of the Chicago prices. Broker L. N. Lake said that the result of the Chicago Board of Trade cutting out its quotations would do no less than to double what it is.

THE PLEA TO-DAY presented a scene of activity for many months unequalled.

THE ANTI-BOTTLE FIGHT. It weakens on the Boston-Bellefontaine and Strengthen on the Union.

The anti-bottle fight against the Boston-Bellefontaine and Union lines, under the auspices of the Bryan and College Hill Improvement Association, was still on to-day, but it was evidently weakening on the former though strengthening on the latter. The drivers on the Boston-Bellefontaine reported that while they had to collect fares in many cases, many who stood out yesterday paid promptly this morning, while those who stood out had paid their fares as usual, as to occasion as little delay as possible. There was also an absence of circulars, where yesterday they were stuck up in the car windows and the fare box, and distributed generally. The patrons of the Union line reported that the company will go ahead with its change of motor and put on new cars as soon as possible, under which circumstances nothing is to be gained by a fight now. On the Union line it is different. The company has not even applied for the privilege of changing its motor, and has given no indication as to when it will withdraw the bottle. If ever the fight there has consequently gathered a great deal more strength, and the drivers this morning reported that they had a great many more fares to collect than yesterday. On both lines the heavy travel is fitting to twenty minutes earlier than usual, the people, those who paid as usual and those who waited until the driver stopped his mules to collect, making allowance for detention on the road.

Capt. Anthony dying. Capt. David H. Anthony, an old river man and ex-United States Inspector of steamboats for District No. 4, is dying at his residence, No. 507 Thomas street. He is suffering from congestion of the brain and there is little hope of his recovery. Capt. Anthony was Steamboat Inspector under the Cleveland Administration, and only a short time ago was relieved by Frank Burnett of Louisiana, Mo. The members of the dying man's family are all gathered around him. The State has been notified of his condition.

A Long Trial. The case of Marcus E. Lipe against the St. Louis & San Francisco R. R. Co. is still on trial in the United States Circuit Court and is its fourth day. It is a suit for damages for $5,000 for injuries received in the accident at Sullivan, Mo., and it is the first of a series of suits.

THE CORONER'S REPORT.

STATISTICS FURNISHED ON UNNATURAL DEATHS FOR THE PAST YEAR.

A Lesser Number of Suicides and a Greater Number of Homicides Than in 1889.—The Morgue Superintendent gives some interesting figures—Suggestion for the improvement of the City Dead-House.

In about a week the annual report for the fiscal year ending April 1, showing the work done in the offices of the Coroner and Morgue Superintendent of the city of St. Louis, will be presented to Mayor Noonan by Coroner John N. Frank. The whole work has been completed by Clerk George T. Lewis, and shows a very satisfactory state of affairs in that department of the city government.

The report was finished early this morning. It shows a total of 732 cases handled during the year in the Coroner's office. Of these 61 were white and 31 were colored. Of males there were 543, and of females 189. The social condition of 397 was single, of 245 married, of 81 widowed, and of 5 unknown.

CAUSES OF DEATH. Of these cases death in all instances was due to causes of an entirely accidental nature. The verdict was death from suicide in 91 cases, of abortion in 11, of homicide in 55, of premature birth in 13, of infantile in 9, of drowning in 21, of stillbirth in 18, of without medical attendance in 321. The cause of death in two cases could not be ascertained. In comparison with this the report of the fiscal year ending April 1, 1889, shows deaths by accident 304, by abortion 9, by suicide 101, by homicide 26, by premature birth 17, by infantile 11, by drowning 44, stillbirths 19, without medical attendance 322. The cause of death was not ascertained in one instance. It will thus be seen that the death rate by suicide is 10 per cent greater than for the previous year.

Of these 91 were white and 11 colored. Of males there were 73 and females 18. Of the 11 cases of abortion, 10 were white and 1 colored. Of the 55 cases of homicide, 44 were white and 11 colored. Of the 321 cases of without medical attendance, 245 were white and 76 colored. Of the 13 cases of premature birth, 11 were white and 2 colored. Of the 9 cases of infantile, 7 were white and 2 colored. Of the 21 cases of drowning, 18 were white and 3 colored. Of the 18 cases of stillbirth, 15 were white and 3 colored. Of the 18 cases of without medical attendance, 15 were white and 3 colored.

THE MORGUE REPORT. The report shows a total of 354 bodies brought to that institution; 299 by the Coroner's undertaker, 36 by the Police and 19 by private parties. Of these 354 bodies, 299 were white and 55 were colored. Of the 299 white bodies, 245 were male and 54 were female. Of the 55 colored bodies, 44 were male and 11 were female. Of the 299 white bodies, 245 were male and 54 were female. Of the 55 colored bodies, 44 were male and 11 were female.

The superintendent also said that during the coming fiscal year he is allowed for expenses a total of $3,000, of which $1,000 is for salaries, $1,000 for rent, $1,000 for fuel, $1,000 for repairs, $1,000 for coal and $1,000 for disinfectants. It is suggested that $200 be used for immediate repairs to the woodwork of the building. It is also suggested that a small room be built in the rear of the exhibition room in order to accommodate witnesses and jurors who are now forced to be sworn in the exhibition room over the body in which the inquest is being held. A plan for the better lighting of the building is also included in the report. A new system of exposing bodies in a huge refrigerator is suggested. It is also reported that repairs are necessary in the roof and the plumbing of the whole building. The report will be sent to the City Clerk early next week.

Cut on the Hand.

Early yesterday morning a fight occurred between two colored men named Brockway and Armstrong on Broadway near Kruse street. Carondelet, over a game of craps. While the men were fighting a man named Watson interfered, and persuaded the men to discontinue the fight. One of the negroes pulled out a knife and cut Watson in the left hand. The middle finger was almost severed. Watson walked to Dr. F. Zeller's office and had the wound dressed.

Catarrhal Dangers.

To be freed from the dangers of catarrh while lying down; to breathe freely, sleep soundly and undisturbed; to rise refreshed, head clear, brain active and free from pain or ache; to know that no poison, putrid matter, defiles the breath and rots away the delicate machinery of smell, taste and hearing; to feel that the system does not, through its veins and arteries, suck up the poison that is sure to undermine and destroy, is indeed a blessing beyond all other human enjoyments. To purchase immunity from such state should be the object of all afflicted. But those who have tried many remedies and physicians despair of relief or cure.

TO BE TRIED HERE.

The Case Against Charles F. Vall Comes to St. Louis.

The defense in the Vall case furnished a surprise when the case came up yesterday and the burden of delay now rests upon Vall's side of the case. The attorneys for both sides have announced themselves ready for trial, and said that they were anxious for a trial on April 9. When the case was called the State wanted to know whether the defense was ready and Mr. McDonald refused to answer as he had a right to do. The Gov. Johnson announced the State ready. Mr. McDonald said no jury had been summoned and the State was not in good faith. At the request of Mr. Dryden Judge Edwards ordered a panel of fifty jurors. Mr. McDonald still would not announce himself ready, because he said he had a right to the list of forty-eight names before making his challenge; not before announcing himself ready. Then Mr. McDonald moved for a change of venue, and there was a delay while the formal motion was made out. Judge Edwards considered it, and sent the case to the city of St. Louis for trial. So Vall will be tried here, and the celebrated murder case will be heard by a St. Louis jury. Mr. McDonald had been quoted as saying that he thought he could get a fair jury in St. Charles, but he changed his mind when he opposed going to trial, and said to announce himself ready and then took a change of venue is a point against his client.

Cases of Shoes Filled With Highly Explosive Cartridges.

PEPPER, Mich., April 8.—H. G. Peister, a boot and shoe merchant, received yesterday three cases of shoes from Georgetown, Mass. One of the cases was somewhat broken and, when the dozen boxes were taken out, in seven of them one pound cartridges of dynamite were found packed with the shoes. It was supposed to be an April fool joke, but an examination showed that the cartridges were of a high explosive power. One was exploded and the violence of the concussion indicated that the seven were sufficient to blow a whole block sky high. It was supposed that the dynamite was packed in the box with the intention of blowing up some depot or wrecking some train. The box showed signs of having been opened before it was received here. Fortunately, the cartridges were frozen and did not blow out during transit, the plot being thus thwarted.

NOBODY KNEW HIM.

A Passenger on a Wisconsin Central Train Committed Suicide.

WAUKESHA, Wis., April 8.—A passenger committed suicide on the Wisconsin Central train yesterday morning. The man entered the saloon, made a loop of a handkerchief and by suspending it to a coat hook succeeded in strangling himself. The handkerchief broke under the strain, and the man fell back, his head striking the floor. He was so far gone that he could not be revived and he died in a few minutes. He was about 35 years old and of the middle walk of life, evidently. No one on the train knew him, but from papers found on his person his name is believed to be Frank Schmidt. A ticket from Spokane Falls, Wash., to Detroit was found in his pocket, together with $24 in cash.

THE STANDING CONTEST.

THE SCHOOL BOARD COMMITTEE HEARS FURTHER TESTIMONY.

Citizens Who Are Put Down as Voting, but Who Did Not Vote—Others Recorded as Voting Two or More Times—Interest in the Deposition and Testimony of Election Officers.

His special committee of the Board of Public Schools having in charge the investigation of the Standing-Kelly contest, met last night. There were present Directors Macklin, Rogers and Bosley and Attorney Basileus, Stark and Muench. The latter, attorney for the contestant, submitted depositions made by Bennett Pike, John Mullally, John Powers, John Schwilghausen, George Holzhauser, Adam Weber, John H. Vogel, George J. Lindsey, O. H. Petring and Sol J. Quilman, all of the Twenty-fourth Ward. They were taken by himself and Mr. Stark as Mr. Kelly's attorney. They all had votes accredited to them in the school election held on November 5, 1889, and had been discovered by the Contest Committee, whereas Messrs. Pike, Vogel and Petring, in their depositions, make oath that they did not vote at all, whereas several others in their depositions say they can not understand why they should be credited with two or more votes, as they had voted but once.

Mr. Quilman was one of the judges of the school election and his deposition was of special interest.

He had, he said, served all day, except from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. During that time he had left the polling place in charge of Messrs. Peter Daly and J. T. O'Keefe. In reply to a question on this subject he answered:

"I do not remember what number of ballots had been received when I left. I went to attend to some business. There were no other parties there when I left, except the judges and clerks. I cannot say now where or how many times the votes were counted at that precinct on that day. We had a few counts during the day, but I am pretty certain they did not have any count while I was out of the room. I don't think they would open the box in my absence."

Mr. Muench then, in taking the deposition, advanced to the point, his first question after that of Mr. Quilman, was: "Did you see any answers, being as follows:

"If there were ballots in that box which have not even been folded, can you explain how they got into the box?"

"If there were any there it is a mystery to me."

"If there are as many as two and three votes each cast for a single voter at that precinct, can you explain how they found their way into the box?"

"No, sir; I can not account for that."

"If there are votes in that box which were not cast by citizens who did not vote at all at that election, can you explain how they got into the box?"

"No, sir."

"In counting the votes did you notice anything unusual about the uniformity with which they had been scratched and prepared?"

"I noticed no uniformity whatever."

"You don't mean to say the uniformity does not exist?"

"No, sir. No particular uniformity, either as to the scratching and preparing. I won't believe until I see the tickets."

"What time in the evening did you finish the count of such votes as you found in the box?"

"We finished the counting as soon as we could, and about 8 o'clock."

"When you counted who kept the tally?"

"We had two clerks, Mr. O'Keefe and Mr. Daly."

"Who read off the names from the ballots?"

"I did myself, sir."

"How many ballots were still to be counted at the time you closed the poll?"

"I can not say, sir."

"What was done with the ballot-box after you finished the count?"

"I took it over to my house."

"How long did it remain there?"

"I took it down to the School Board office in the morning."

"Had O'Keefe and Peter Daly been appointed to act by the School Board?"

"No, sir."

"Did they come to act?"

"The gentlemen who were appointed did not make their appearance that morning."

"Did you see any of the ballots after they were counted?"

"No, sir. I saw the only one who appeared."

ST. LOUIS, THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 3, 1890.

VOTES RECEIVED YESTERDAY, 2,548.

Red-Letter Day in the "Sunday Post-Dispatch" Election for the Two Popular Lady Teachers.

That Number of Ballots Was Received in This Office Between 8 A. M. and 4:30 P. M.

The Indications at Noon To-Day Are That To-day's Figures Will Be Much Larger.

The Ballots, However, Were Very Evenly Distributed, so That the Race Is Close and Exciting—Nearly Three Hundred Teachers Were Voted For in Yesterday's Balloting—Some of the Novel Schemes That the Workers Have Adopted—"A Campaign Club" at the Bates School and Its Plan—Novel Plan for Booming a West-End Teacher—A Railroad Office and Several Wholesale Stores in the Fight—Letters and Queries Answered—Details of the Greatest Local Sensation of Many Years.

THE whole number of votes received in the POST-DISPATCH office between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4 p. m. yesterday in the election for the most popular lady teacher, was 2,548. If you do not think that the election is booming, look at these figures again. It was a mass of ballots that covered several desks and that required some very hard work on the part of the expert accountants to get them in shape. The vote was well scattered, too. There were few big batches. Nearly every teacher mentioned in the contest received her quota, so that the relative positions were not much changed by the big vote. Yesterday was the red letter day so far. But to-day it beats it badly. At 12 o'clock noon over 2,000 ballots had come in, and there were, of course, all the afternoon mails to be heard from. The vote has been steady and strong all along, but with the present week it has increased in a way that is formidable.

IT HAS CAPTURED THE TOWN. There is no question that the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH popular election is the sensation at present. It is everywhere and everybody is discussing it. The plans of securing votes which have been adopted are as various as any political campaign. As will be seen by the correspondence printed elsewhere, a campaign club has been formed at the Bates School. Regular officers have been appointed, who direct the work of the members. The campaign is being carried on in a very scientific and, the pupils of Bates School propose to lose no votes. Communications from the Secretary of the club are printed among the letters in this column.

A NOVEL PLAN. Mr. George Vandergent of Hamilton and Minerva avenue has introduced old-time tactics in his campaign for Miss Halliday of the Carr Lane. He is determined to send the lady to Europe and has paid for 1,000 cards on which is printed, "Vote for Miss Halliday of the Carr Lane." He hands these to every one he meets, with the request to follow the directions on the card. Mr. Vandergent is a man who is very well known as a contractor, etc., and his work for Miss Halliday is sure to count.

THE FEVER SPREADING. The same interest prevails throughout all the schools. It is the rage. The scholars are not the only excited ones. Older heads have got the fever. It has attacked the wholesale houses. One big firm has entered itself in the cause of a teacher who is not near the lead now, but if the plan of campaign is carried out, she will be in the first rank before ten days. Another wholesale dry goods store has entered the contest. The idea is small now, but it is proposed that no SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH coupon that can be voted in her favor shall be missed in the future.

In a big railroad office the clerks have organized to elect a teacher, and they are going about it in a regular and systematic way. In addition every pupil has a club, or belongs to a club. He or she is working like a beaver.

JUST IN ITS INFANCY. The contest, although it has assumed such proportions, is just in its infancy. It has not fairly started. The leaders now are likely to be the successful ones. But the contest has passed away. A bet was made on Sunday between two prominent gentlemen, one of whom wagered that neither of the winners had been mentioned at all in all the lists printed up to and including that day. By that wager he meant that although hundreds of names had been printed up to that time he thought the contest was so young that two persons entirely outside the lists would be the winners. That is the proper way for all workers to look at it. It is anybody's race yet.

THE LESSON OF THIS. It requires only work to win. There are thousands of copies of the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH circulated in the neighborhood of the home of every boy and every girl. See that none of them are lost. You will find some person in your vicinity who do not care to use the ballot. Get it and vote it for your teacher. See that your neighbors, your friends, your relatives get the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH and that they save the ballot for you. Your father or your brother can help you at his lodge and at his club. See that he does so. Your mother and your sister can also give you great help. Every pupil should neglect no chance of this kind.

THE PRIZES. The prizes are so well known that it is necessary to refer to them only in a very brief way. The SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH proposes to defray all the expenses of a summer trip to Europe for the two most popular lady teachers in St. Louis, and it proposes to leave the selection to the citizens of St. Louis, under the rules given below. The two ladies who receive the highest number of votes will make the trip without one cent of expense to themselves. Since the contest was opened, a third prize has been added. The teacher who receives the third largest vote will be presented with the elegant gold watch and chain, set with diamonds, donated by the Mermord & Jacard Jewelry Co., on exhibition in a window of the firm at Broadway and Locust, and valued at $200. There is no restriction about voting, except as provided in the rules below.

All questions will be promptly answered in this column.

It is stated that the lady is not teaching in the schools here now.

It Will Be Published.

ST. LOUIS, April 3.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

Having collected some money which I do not know how to send for them. Please let me know how to go on about it, and what receipt I get for the money thus sent. Do you intend to publish the number of votes cast for each one? An enthusiastic subscriber.

M. J. MARKS,

710 South Ninth street.

[Call at this office or at any of the branch offices of the Post-Dispatch, and you can get all the ballots you desire. The receipt you will get will be the papers you receive. 2. Yes, the full vote will be published.]

Signing With a Stamp.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 3.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

Is a vote on teacher legal and will it be counted if signed with a rubber stamp signifying (for example of genuineness) I want to vote for a Peabody teacher and desire to save time and labor.

[Yes, such ballots are perfectly legal. They will be counted. Send them in.]

The Two Are One.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 3.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

Miss Carr of the Foster Academy, and Miss Carr of the High School are one and the same person. Please correct your mistake, as you have them arranged separately in your columns.

K. F. PUPIL.

See Yesterday's List.

ST. LOUIS, April 1.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

I sent four votes for Miss Stella Stith of the Webster School, and you can get them in the list of teachers. Please attend to this in Wednesday's paper and oblige.

Mrs. G. YAKOR.

Miss Giltz.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 1.—Is Miss Giltz at the Carondelet. We thought she was at the Crow. Please let us know.

Mrs. G. YAKOR.

Answers in Brief.

TEACHER.—It has been decided not to print the figures you want for the present.

CANDIDATE.—It has been decided to confine the number of prizes to three. Your suggestion is a very good one, but the rule has been made and it has been decided not to change it by many.

LITTLE POPS.—The contest is only begun.

There are several weeks for work yet, and in that time it is probable that teachers not mentioned now may become the leaders. Go to work and push your favorite teacher.

The Vote To-Day.

Following is the order in which all the candidates stand in the race to-day. Only the very early votes received this morning are credited here, because the ballots come so long before noon. Hundreds of ballots received to-day will be acknowledged to-morrow.
